Write your thoughts about the questions in the space below and discuss them with a partner. Be sure to turn in your answers. Thanks!

- 1. In this text, when the exciting outcome happens (sheep and coin are found) there is excitement that can't be contained. What things do we do at our congregation that you think are amazing and excite you about ministry?
- 2. When you think about other organizations that you are influenced by or support, who is doing good work that you think is note-worthy? Who else makes you say "wow!" with the work they do?
- 3. Both the shepherd and the woman are single minded in their drive to find their sheep or coin. If you could work hard on one thing you care deeply about – where would you like your life's "wow" to change the world?
